As the parent of a teenager, I'm sure you're well aware of the frantic pace of your child's life. (In fact, you're probably the leading expert on it!) Today's teenagers are constantly engaged in activities. And when they aren't, virtually every "free" moment is packed with media or entertainment of some kind.

In the midst of this environment of constant entertainment and engagement, how does a teenager connect with God and grow in his or her relationship with Him? How can students take time to engage in seeking personal spiritual growth when the time to focus is almost non-existent? The key is for students to learn to hit Pause.

This one day conference is a powerful time of Bible study, application, and learning exactly what Scripture says about seeking the Lord in the busyness of life. The Pause will teach your child what the Bible says about:

- The importance of taking time to pause in order to live a life that makes an impact
- The importance of prayer in developing and maintaining a relationship with God
- How to pray to God
- How to study God's Word
- How to be on mission with God to the world around them
